

LCRWD#17 Rates and Fees Schedule
Effective 6-14-23

MONTHLY CHARGES:

Base Fee	$62.00 per month.
Plus Usage Fee:
1 - 1,000 gal	$15.00/1000 gal
1,001 - 2,000 gal	$16.00/1000 gal
2,001 - 3,000 gal	$17.00/1000 gal
3,001 - 8,000 gal	$18.00/1000 gal
8,001 - 80,000 gal	$19.00/1000 gal

DISCONNECT FEES:

- Customer-requested shut off ----- $0.00
 - Shut off due to non-payment ----- $125.00
 - Customer has 30 days from shut off date to resolve past due by paying in full or signing a hardship agreement that includes disconnect & reconnect fees to resume service.
 - After 30 days the customer account is closed and the meter is removed.
-  Note: No Tap will be re-activated until past-due is paid or hardship agreement is signed. **

CUSTOMER RECONNECT FEE (to restore service to an existing tap):

- Current Customer - within 30 days of shut off & meter in tap ----- $125.00
- Current Customer - after 30 days meter is removed. A new account will be created with all documents completed; customer responsible for an existing tap connection fee of $1,500.00.
- New Owner - within 30 days of shut off & meter in tap ----- $125.00. New Owner must provide proof of ownership, a service agreement, and a notarized easement if none is in place.
- New Owner - after 30 days meter is removed. For reconnection after 30 days, New Owner must provide proof of ownership, a service agreement, a notarized easement and an Existing Tap Connection Fee of $1,500.00.

NEW TAP CONNECTION FEES:

- Pressure Availability Certification Fee prior to install of new tap (non-refundable) ----- $100.00
- New Tap Installation Fee ----- $2,000.00 or actual cost, which ever is greater.
- All line installations costs over $2000 are paid by customer

NOTES:

- * All customers must provide proof of ownership, a service agreement, and a notarized easement.
- * There are no hardship pay-out agreements available for connection fees.
- * These fees are for installation. All district-installed equipment belongs to the district.
- * Returned check fee ----- $25.00